Master of Marriage and Family Therapy

ATTEND ONE OF OUR FREE INFORMATION SESSIONS

Information sessions provide a closer view of our real world academic approach and offer you a chance to meet and interact with faculty and staff as well as observe a mock counseling session.

Find answers to admission, financial aid and scholarship questions while exploring the Marriage and Family Therapy program during the sessions.

PROGRAM GOALS AND STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students who complete the program are responsive to the many aspects of diversity that exist within human relationships. They demonstrate self-awareness, a commitment to ethical practice, and relational responsibility in service to individuals, couples, and families, to their communities, and to the profession of marriage and family therapy. Students who complete the program will have met the educational requirements for MFT licensure in California.
